What is a Friend's Group?

A library friends group exists to support the local library. The Friends of the Port Library have the following goals:

- Build support for the library in the local community.
- Encourage gifts and endowments to the Port Library.
- To take on specific library projects that enhance library image, materials, services, and facilities.
- Create public awareness of the Friends of the Port Library and encourage library and Friends membership.

Boredom busting Friend's activities!

- Come to a Friends meeting every second Monday of the month at 6:00 PM.
- Staff the bi-annual used book sale in late spring and late fall.
- Run a booth at the local farmer's market in the summer (June-August).
- Volunteer at the Port Library any time!
- Host programs, book clubs, author visits, workshops and more at the Port Library.

What is the Port Library?

The Port Library is the public library of Beloit, Kansas. It is named for Emma Port, donor of the library's first permanent home. The Emma Port House contained the Port Library from 1932 to 2012. To honor such a legacy, the library will retain the name "Port" even after moving to its new location.

The old Port Home.

The Port library serves the citizens of Beloit and surrounding areas, about 4,000 people. The library provides free access to books, movies, music, audiobooks, microfilm of local newspapers, local history, computer access, wireless internet, children's programs, reader's advisory, and help with questions of any kind.
