

Minecrafternoons!

Here's how it works:

Option 1:

- Let the library know you want to come in and play.
- Sign the conduct agreement before you play.
- A maximum of 4 people can play at the library at a time.
- Come to the library at our Minecrafternoons program times: Thursdays, May 28th—August 13th, 2015.
- The Study Room will be set up and ready to play from 3:45—6:00 pm.
- Play will be in survival mode, and complete a librarian's challenge for a prize!

Option 2:

- Let the library know you will be playing from home
- Sign the conduct agreement and get it to the library by email, mail, or in person before you play.
- Find the library's gamertag and friend us before playing.
- A maximum of 8 people can play online at a time.
- You will be able to play during the regular Minecrafternoons program times: Thursdays from 3:45—6:00 pm from May 28th—August 13th.
- Play will be in survival mode, and complete a librarian's challenge for a prize!

Conduct Agreement

By participating in any or all Minecrafternoon programs at the Port Library, I agree to following:

1. I will let a librarian know when I want to play or if I'll miss a session so that any on the waiting list may play.
2. I will not destroy another person's creation in game with bombs, fire, etc., or remove /destroy blocks from another person's creation unless I have the other player's permission.
3. I will not attempt to kill another player intentionally in combat or revenge.
4. I will not use foul language while playing at the library or online.
5. I will not abuse or destroy library property by throwing or hitting Xbox equipment, consoles, projectors, etc., while I am at the library during a Minecrafternoon program.
6. I will wrap up gameplay when the librarian asks (even if the program time is not done) or risk losing gameplay to the last save point.
7. I will not attempt to change or modify any software or settings on the library's Xbox console or within the game remotely or while in the library.
8. I will not insert a USB drive into the Xbox to save my game for portability without permission.
9. I will follow any additional rules when completing a librarian's challenge.

Failure to follow this conduct agreement will result in a partial or full ban from participation in any or all of the Minecrafternoons programs, at the librarian's discretion.
