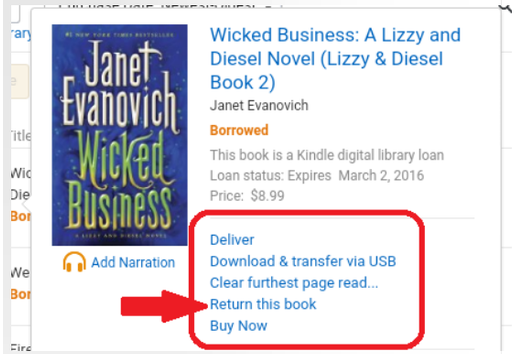
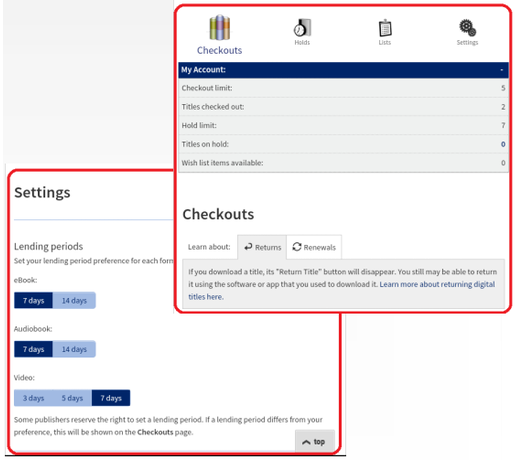
From the window that pops up, tap “Return this book.”



You can change length of loan and see your checkout limit on your Sunflower eLibrary’s account page.



Questions? Don’t hesitate to contact a librarian using the information on the front, or set up a time to stop by in person with your device for one-on-one tutoring.

Checking out Sunflower E-Library Books on your Kindle Fire

Port Library
1718 N. Hersey
Beloit, KS 67420
785-738-3936

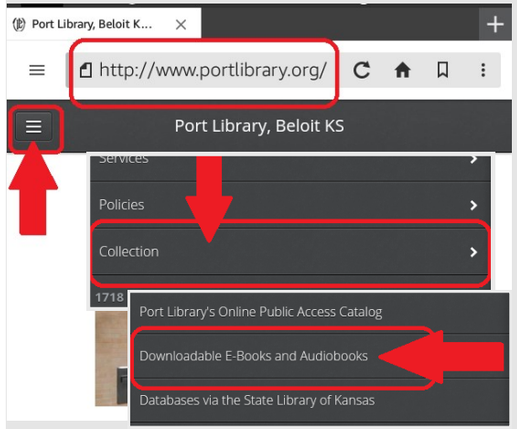
www.portlibrary.org
portlib@nckcn.com

First

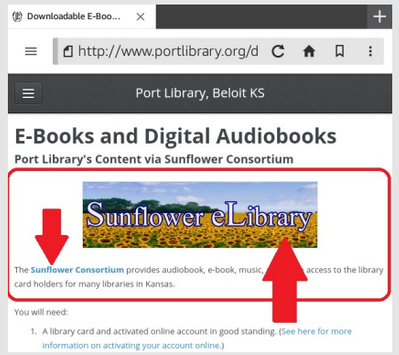
1. Have your Kindle Fire charged and turned on. Make sure your Kindle Fire can connect to the internet via wi-fi.
2. Know or find your login and password information for your Sunflower eLibrary and Amazon accounts.
3. Make sure you are signed in to your Amazon account on your Kindle Fire’s web browser.

The following screen shots are from the Kindle Fire 7, using Silk to access the internet.

Go to www.portlibrary.org. Use the three lines at the upper left of the screen to access the menu, choosing “Collection,”. and then “Downloadable E-Books…”

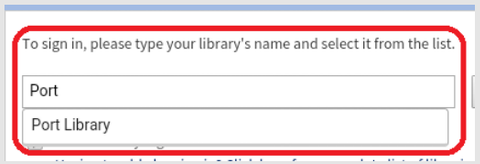


In this webpage, select Sunflower E-Library either by tapping the text or picture



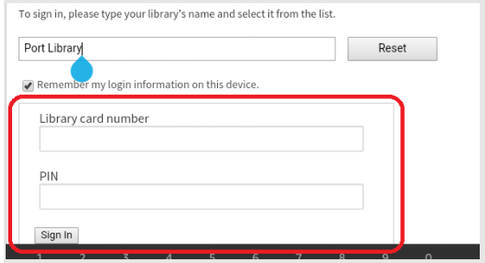
This will take you to www.sunflowerelibrary.org. Sign in using the link in the upper right corner.

Start typing “Port Library” in the box, and select it from the list.

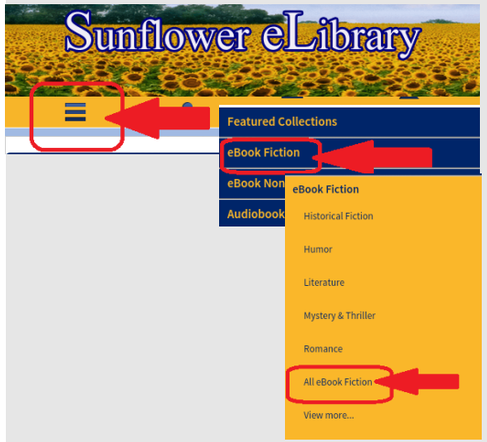


Open me up to continue...

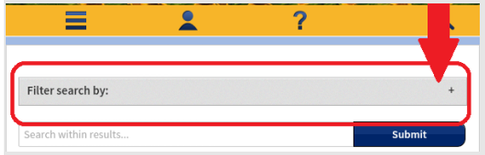
Sign in using your library card number with all the zeroes, and the password you created to access your Port Library account.



There are many ways to search, but to begin browsing, tap the menu, then "e-Book Fiction."

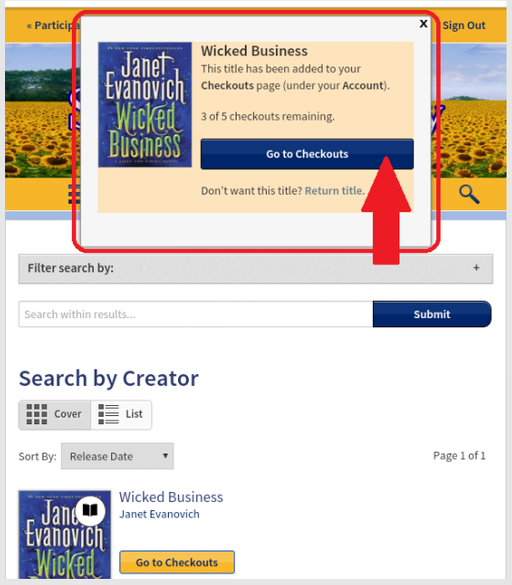


You can search within results or filter your results at the top of the screen.

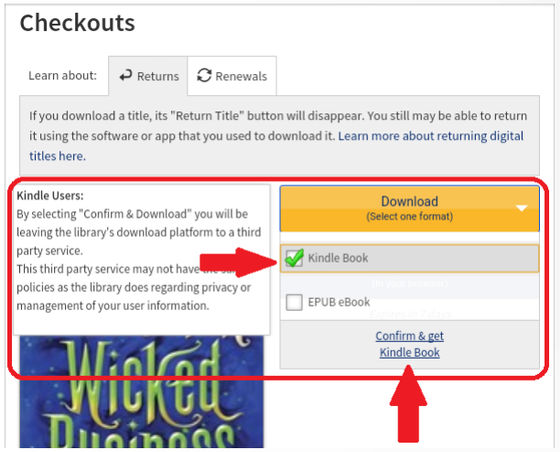


The most important filter is the "Available Now" option. The default display has both checked in and checked out e-books. The gray book icons in the upper right of the covers are checked out items. The black book icons are available now.

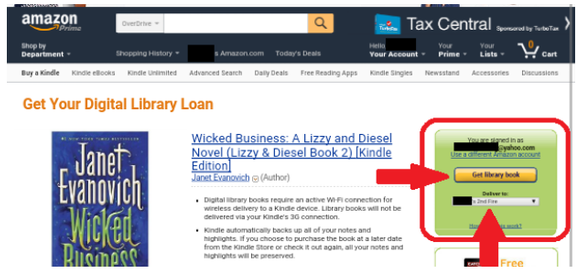
Tap the cover of a book you want to check out, or tap the title for more information, then tap "borrow." A confirmation window will pop up. You can continue browsing or click "go to checkouts".



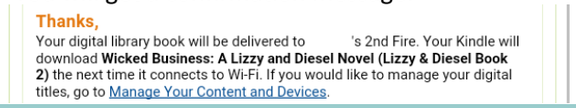
You will be taken to the checkouts section of your account page to complete the process. Click "Download" then "Kindle Book." At the bottom, click "Confirm & Get Kindle Book".



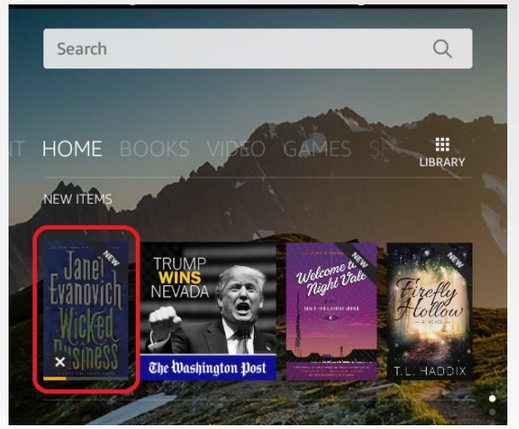
The checkout process completes on Amazon.com in a new tab. If you have more than one Kindle ready device registered, be sure to select the one you want your book delivered to. You will need to pinch and zoom in to click accurately. Then click "Get Library Book."



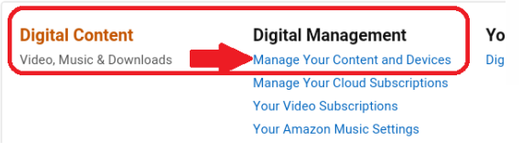
You will get a confirmation message.



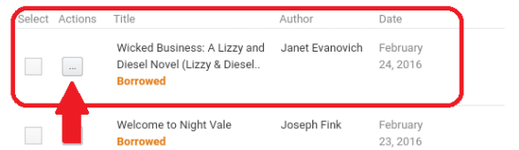
Your book should begin downloading to your device and appear on your home screen.



You can return your book early. On Amazon, under the "My Account" tab select the "Manage Your Content and Devices" link near the bottom of the page. You will need to pinch and zoom in on the Kindle Fire screen.



Tap the three dots to the left of the title you wish to return.



Continued on back...